

My Teaching Inspirations

MATTHEW PAPRSKAR

Teachers who have inspired me

- ▶ My first-grade teacher
 - ▶ Welcoming.
 - ▶ She had different materials to feel, touch, smell a bunch of different items in the class to feel, touch, smell, and see.
 - ▶ Everyone has a different experience with a teacher.

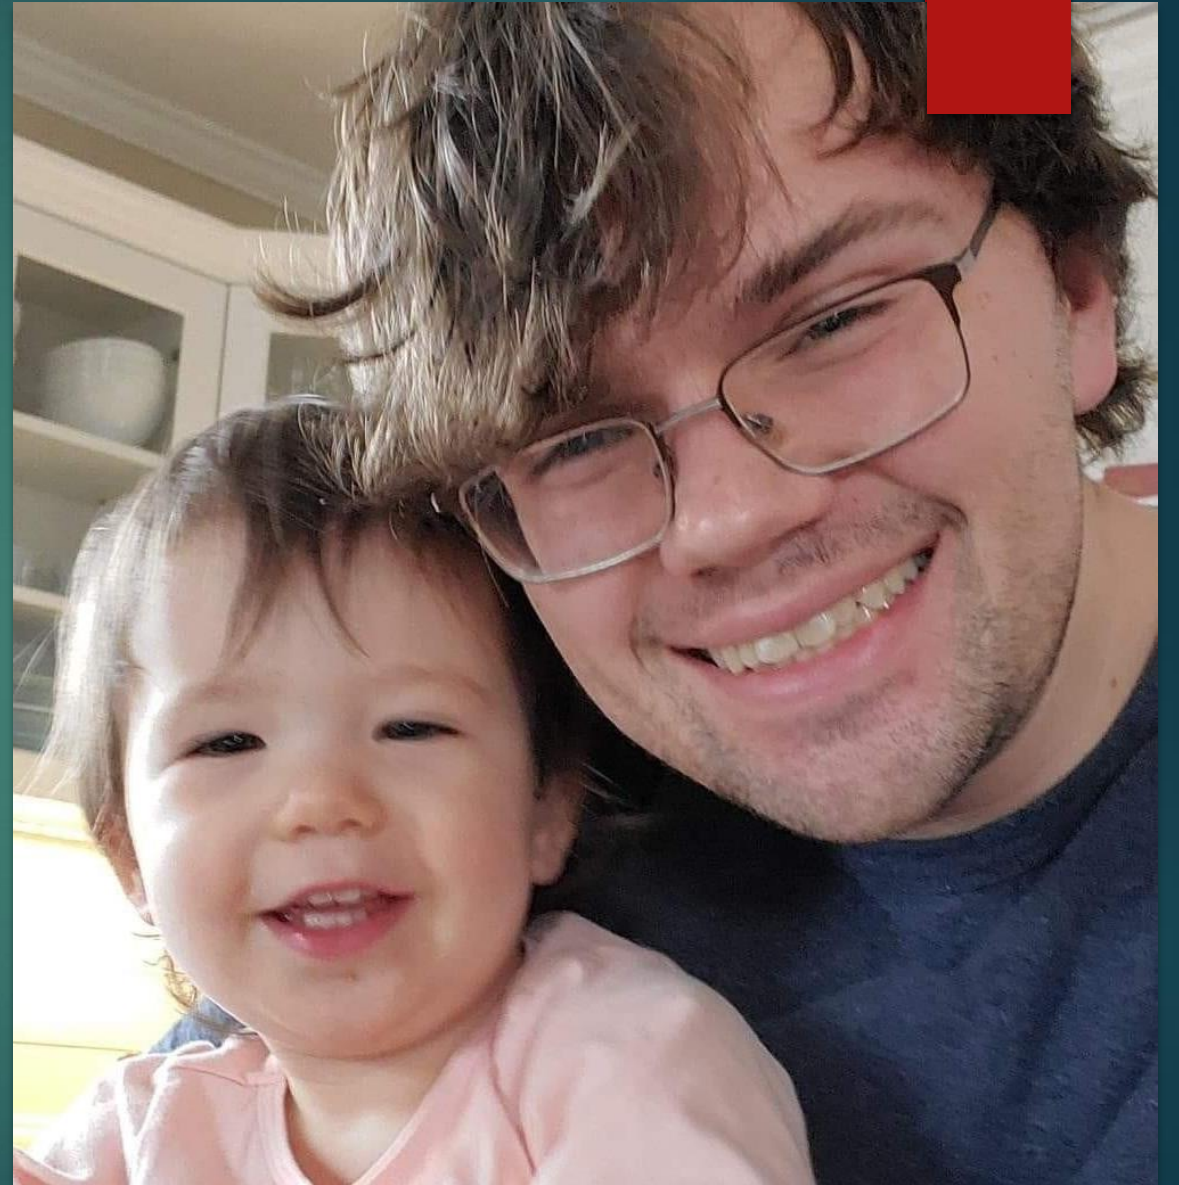

Learning Perspectives

- ▶ I was not a good student
- ▶ I could not focus on the lesson plans
- ▶ Post-secondary freedom to choose how to learn helped me outdo anything I thought I could

My Niece

- Five years ago, my sister had her first child.
- How fast children grow and learn.
- Inquisitiveness
 - sometimes the pressure and competitiveness can take the curiosity out of kids

Teaching English as a Second Language

- ▶ Teaching ESL (in my experience) is not a good job
 - ▶ Bad pay
 - ▶ Bad hours
 - ▶ Bad communication with management
 - ▶ Good Students! 😊

Lifelong Student

- ▶ I love learning
- ▶ I would love to one day get my Master's
- ▶ I am very interested in alternative methods of learning
